of attempted depredations of property, such as occurred here today. Leaders of the rival factions of the I. W. W. are making a common front, and are gathering from Portland, Oregon, and Los Angeles. From Oregon they say they will travel in teams to Washington, D. C.

A detachment of the unemployed band ordered out of Oakland and Emeryville started a riot in the morning, where they were put off by the police, and then they were taken to the city hall.

Police, with drawn revolvers, ordered the mob only after 15000 dollars had been taken. Roads were torn from the building, which stands on the corner of the city hall, and the mob were struck by the police.

Two newspapers were struck by the mob before order was restored. The papers were the Los Angeles Times and the Los Angeles Herald-Examiner.

TO KEEP TAB ON SHIPS.

Vessels Passing Through Straits Asked to Report Their Names and Other Information.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Vessels passing through the Straits of Magellan in the future are to be requested to give their names, nationality and official number by the use of signals on passing the lighthouses at Dunagan, Punta Delgada, San Isidro and Evangelista, or any other lighthouse on the straits which may ask for the information, according to address received here today by the Bureau of Navigation. The records are to be kept by the Chilean government for the information of ship owners and others throughout the world.

The Chilean government is seeking this information for the purpose of lessening the radius of search of vessels when reported missing. Heretofore it has had no knowledge of the ships that pass through the straits.

BRYAN PAN-AMERICAN TRIP.

Secretary Plans to Go Down the West and Up East Coast, But Will Not Visit Mexico.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Plans for Secretary Bryan's trip to South America at the time of the Pan-American conference next September are going forward today in the Pan-American Union and the State Department, but officials declared they were as yet immature.

Secretary Bryan's announcement to the Pan-American Union aroused the greatest interest among the Latin-American diplomats here. Senator Bryan plans to leave here in July, going down the west coast, visiting the nations there, and to return on the east coast, visiting Argentina, Uruguay and Brazil.

Considerable interest was aroused over whether Bryan would touch Mexico during his trip.

PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARY.

Senator Sherman Annals Proposition, Declaring a Few States Would Absolutely Control Nominations.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Advocating his bill to recognize State primary laws for the selection of delegates to national conventions and the election of national committees, Senator Sherman, Republican, of Illinois, declared today a national primary law was the remedy for party dangers. He assailed the proposal for a nation-wide Presidential primary, on the ground that it would result in a few States absolutely controlling Presidential nominations.

"The methods of the Republican national convention in Chicago in 1912 can be justified by an appeal to neither fairness nor justice," said he. "The quarrel of alleged leaders disrupt and destroy this union of 8,000,000 voters." In the National Committee the party?

"The Republican National Committee cannot irrevocably change the basis of representation. The recognition by an act of Congress of the several primary laws of the States will guarantee protection against future controversy.

"The Republican party ought not to perish. Conciliation by reasonable concession ought to be the basis of adjustment."

CATTLEMAN SEE WILSON. FAVOR KENT LAND BILL.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Senator Ashurst and a delegation of western men interested in cattle raising, called on President Wilson today in the interest of the bill introduced by Representative Kent for Federal regulation of public range lands. Those in the party were Dwight B. Hurd of Phoenix, Ariz.; E. S. Clarke, former Attorney-General of Arizona; Levi Young of Arizona, and E. H. Crabbs, president of the Coccin Cattle Growers' Association.

FIFTEEN YEARS FOR W. C. ELLIS.

CONVICTED OF MURDER BY A CHICAGO JURY.

Cincinnati Merchant Sentenced Despite Pleas of His Attorneys That He Killed His Wife While in a Fit of "Psychic Epilepsy" Caused by Her Actions.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) CHICAGO, March 5.—William Cheney Ellis was found guilty today of having murdered his wife, Mrs. Eleanor-Hosea Ellis, last October, in a Chicago hotel. Punishment was fixed at imprisonment in the State Penitentiary for fifteen years.

Ellis killed his wife, Mrs. Eleanor-Hosea Ellis, here October 15, 1913, the night after they had celebrated their ninth wedding anniversary with a dinner and a theater party.

Mrs. Ellis had come here several days ahead of her husband and made the trip against his wishes. At the trial Ellis defended himself by testifying that he was suffering from "psychic epilepsy" and that he was not in his right mind when he killed her.

His wife was here to meet Fred Caldwell of Brantford, Ontario, Can., a young druggist merchant who had met while on a vacation in Canada. He said the thought drove him to frenzy and expert witnesses set up the plea of psychic epilepsy or transient insanity.

Ellis was a well-known dealer in leather goods in Cincinnati and was supposed to be wealthy. He is 47 years old. Mrs. Ellis was a beautiful woman and the mother of two little daughters, Eleanor and Violet, 5 and 3 years old, respectively.

WATER POWER LEGISLATION.

Senator Jones of Washington Urges Bill to Require Payment on Market Value of Lands.

WASHINGTON, March 5.—Water power legislation, as a measure of relief for the people of the West and South, was urged today by Senator Jones of Washington, who spoke in favor of his bill granting water power sites on the public domain to municipalities or public service corporations, under State or Federal regulations with the power of the government to purchase after fifty years. His bill would require the operators to pay the United States annually 5 per cent. of the fair market value of the lands occupied.

Senator Jones declared the most pressing issue to which this undeveloped water power could be put was the manufacture of nitrogen from the air as a basis of agricultural fertilizer, and the pumping of water for irrigation purposes on the arid lands of the West.

"While Europe has been making significant strides in the last five years in the development of the use of water power for the manufacture of nitrogen, not a single horse power has been devoted to this purpose in the United States," said Senator Jones.

GERMAN WRITER SENT TO JAIL.

INSULTED THE CROWN PRINCE IN ZABERN AFFAIR.

Referred to the Empire's Next Kaiser as "William the Last," and Declared It Would Be a Public Misfortune if He Ever Ascended the Throne.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.) BERLIN, March 5.—For insulting the Crown Prince in a newspaper article, Hans Leus, a writer, was sentenced today to six months' imprisonment. The article, which appeared in the weekly, Die Welt am Montag, was entitled, "William the Last." It declared that the Crown Prince, by sending a telegram of congratulation to Col. Von Reuter in connection with the incidents between the army and civilian authorities at Zabern, and by his farewell order to the Death's Head Hussars when he left the command on January 9, was "propagating republicanism."

The writer said it would be a "public misfortune" if the Crown Prince was called on to ascend the throne. The trial was held behind closed doors.

An Alsatian newspaper gives the text of the Prince's telegram to Col. Von Reuter as follows: "I congratulate you on the firm, energetic stand you have taken."

"The farewell address to the Death's Head Hussars concluded with the words: 'I am proud to have lived with you in this moment of a soldier's highest happiness in your company.'"

Do You Remember

how mother would cuddle you up close to herself in the rocking chair or tuck you in one of those dear old cradles of the time when it wasn't a crime to have rockers on the cradle? And as she rocked and sang, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," or "Twinkle, Twinkle," you just felt yourself slipping away into dreamland until you never could remember the last words she sang. And these old lullabies are better today than they ever were.

You will find them all in

SAYS COLLEGE BETTERS WOMEN

Small Percentage Undergraduate Declares Miss G.

But Thinks Cost of Education Yields Small Interest

States They Marry Late Have Large Families

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

NEW HAVEN, (Conn.) March 5.—"Thirty years ago the proportion of the college for women was small," Miss Laura Drake, president of the college, asserted in addressing the annual religious education convention today. "It shows that only a very small percentage of women are in college."

"Figures also show that the proportion of the college for women is small," she said. "It shows that only a very small percentage of women are in college."

"As to the economic value of college women," Miss Drake said, "it shows that they are better than the average."

"The first public opinion poll was taken in 1890," she said. "It was largely attended to by President Arthur T. Yale, President C. F. Taylor, and the University of Chicago, and Dean Brown of the Yale School."

"Nothing has done more to mine the influence of the recent days than the average judgment on questions of women or politics," she said. "It is a mere casual study of the college."

A little more than two months ago we were among the last prisoners exchanged by either side, some disagreement having arisen on this question. As it was, quite a number of boys captured at Thompson's Station—112 of them—died while in the prison.

CAPTURED AT SPRING HILL.

The six veterans present belonged to the 112nd Third Brigade, Gen. Baird's division, that attempted to hold Spring Hill against 15,000 Confederates, while Gen. Gilbert with his 12,000 men remained inactive a few miles from the field. According to the War statistics, the odds in this battle were greater than in any other fought during the entire conflict.

"Coburn's brigade, with the Eighteenth Ohio battery and the Ninth Pennsylvania Cavalry, a total of 1,837 men, was sent forward on the morning of March 5, 1863, to halt the movements of the enemy under Gen. Van Dorn. The country was hilly and full of small valleys, into one of which the brigade was finally drawn after more than a day of fighting against odds which realized an overpowering. Word had been sent to Gen. Gilbert, but he remained inactive.

THE ROLL CALL.

The six prison comrades who sat at table and recounted many of the details of their unusual experiences were H. V. Parker, Past Department Commander of California, and Nevada; J. L. Austin, E. O. Nye, W. N. Trumble, Capt. C. E. Bewell and the host, B. B. Harris. One of their glow-

THE OLD SONGS AND THE NEW.

Stephen Foster and Raytime Music. The modern ragtime music—so-called may be considered but a temporary aberration. A few years ago the popular airs were taken from the light comic operas, or from the sketchy music of the vaudeville artist.

But the simple songs of our fathers—these have given way to variations on the plaintive negro airs of the old South, and will in turn lead to some stirring words, will again come into their own. And when they do the great American balladist, Stephen Foster, will be recognized as one, who perhaps more than any other, caught the spirit of his time, and rendered it into music and words that were sung by millions of his countrymen and

During his life, Foster composed the words and music to about 130 ballads—many of which were translated and sung in foreign countries—and, which proved him to be by far the most popular of American song composers. He died in New York City in 1864, after an eventful career.

Among his most popular productions were "Old Black Joe," "Old Kentucky Home," "Old Folks at Home," and "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming." These touching and beautiful compositions are all to be found in "Heart Songs"—that wonderful song collection now being offered by The Times for six coupons and our readers' endorsement.

For his inactivity and useless sacrifice of troops, Gen. Gilbert was court-martialed, derided and, I am told, was even forced into military prison service.

"It was here that the late Gen. Shafter, then a major, distinguished himself by rallying the retreating troops time and again. The Confederates realized the smallness of the force and proceeded to surround it. A portion of the cavalry and the battery of artillery succeeded in retreating, leaving the brigade stranded and fighting every inch of the ground until at last ammunition ran out. It was only then that they surrendered.

Second Day of the UNITED FASHION SHOW

The throngs of fashion-loving women who visited the Ville de Paris yesterday were enthusiastic over our assemblage of Chic Hats, Charming Dresses, Smart Suits, Nobby Coats, Elegant Silks, Fine Laces, Beautiful Trimmings and Handsome Blouses.

The fashion centers of the world have contributed to this grand exposition of the most advanced style ideas. Our suit department is showing extremely distinctive styles. The accompanying sketch illustrates a compose suit developed in black satin charmeuse, with jaunty coats of black novelty moire. This suit is representative of "Ville" distinctiveness in style, and gives but a hint of the many other attractive garments that are being displayed during the Fashion Show.

HANDSOME SILK COATS $20, $22.50, $25, $32.50, $35, $37.50

Silk coats invariably find favor with the style-loving woman, but this season more than ever. Such silks as the attractive Pussy Willow (Taffeta), and moire silk are shown. In short or three-quarter lengths; lined or unlined.

THE HAT

In the accompanying sketch is representative of "Ville" individuality in millinery. A chic model of real horsehair lace and maline in black, adorned with a beautiful jet ornament; mounted with an elaborate black paradise.

GREAT GROWTH OF THE SCHOOLS.

INCREASE TWELVE THOUSAND IN PAST YEAR.

Board of Education to Ask for Over Seven Million Dollars. Photograph to Teach Pupils How to Pronounce Los Angeles—Two Teachers Assigned to Munich.

Following an earnest debate in the meeting of the Board of Education yesterday, it was decided to ask for a total bond issue of $7,500,000 for the erection and equipment of new school buildings, at the special bond election, the bonds to bear interest at the rate of 4 1/2 per cent. The bonds will be divided into two series, $5,250,000 for the grammar schools and $2,250,000 for high schools.

The debate was on the proposition of the board to reduce the grammar school issue to $2,500,000, and upon the rate of interest, the committee having reported in favor of a rate of 5 per cent. In the final test, Frank and Guinn voted for the smaller issue of bonds, and the board vote unanimously to reduce the rate of interest. Emmet H. Wilson, formerly a member of the board, and who had prepared former calls for special elections, was instructed to "prepare at the earliest possible date" an order and resolution for the election of bonds.

The Building Committee reported the contract awarded to E. J. Denham for the erection of twenty temporary school buildings, at a cost of $600 each, which indicates the crowded condition of the schools and the necessity for new money with which to erect new buildings.

J. H. Bean, in his argument for voting the larger amount of bonds, stated that the increase in pupils last year was 12,000 over the preceding year, and that the department is now fully a year behind in facilities for their proper housing. He argued that statistics of the city prove that it requires $1,800,000 to house 12,000 pupils, and should the citizens vote but $2,500,000 for the grammar schools, by the time it was spent in the erection and equipment of building the city would be just where it is today—housing the increase in temporary buildings or reducing them to half-day schooling.

Miss Marie Lopez, teacher of Spanish in the Los Angeles High School, submitted the Spanish pronunciation of Los Angeles, and on recommendation of Superintendent Francis, she was authorized to make 100 phonograph records, to be used in the elementary and high schools, as a means of teaching the pronunciation. It is practically the pronunciation carried at the head of The Times editorial page, with slight colloquial modification.

C. A. Kuenen, for many years supervisor of manual training in the city schools, was given three months' leave of absence from March 25, without loss of salary, that he may go to Munich, Germany, to study vocational, industrial and continuation schools, under the direction of the Bureau of Education at Washington.

A. N. Hatherall, teacher in the Polytechnic High School, was granted a like privilege on half-pay, he having been in the employment of the city but a few years. The assignments are made through a request from the Munich authorities to the authorities in Washington.

Let me not die in the night,

A Girl Who Needs a Mother's Care.

Dear Miss Libbey: I have a sweetheart—a bachelor of 39. I am 24. He has proposed a trial marriage. I am a poor girl, living with a stepmother. Ought I to consent to my lover's plan, or go to some other place and try to find work? I am very much troubled—and broken-hearted.

I ask you, please with you, to listen to my words, which I would make a prayer to you. Consent to no marriage which is not solemnized before minister or priest. The so-called lover who would urge otherwise is a traitor. Break with him. A man who plans a girl's downfall DOES NOT LOVE HER. I would advise you to go elsewhere and seek work. Do not let him know your destination. I shall be very anxious about you. You will have a happy future if you heed my warning.

LAURA JEAN LIBBEY.

CHILD-WIFE MISSING.

Husband Believes She Has Become Fascinated With Idea of Becoming Motion-Picture Actress.

Young Marcus Castillo is very much worried over the disappearance of his 18-year-old wife, Marie, whom he reported last night to the police.

Marcus, who is a teamster and very much in love with his child-wife, feels certain that the girl has become fascinated with the idea of becoming a motion-picture actress.

Without his permission, he told Detective Chapman at Central Station last night, she has been forming acquaintances among young women reputed to be connected with film companies.

She left the home of the pair at No. 225 East Elmira street last Monday. Since that time he has seen her twice on the street, both times in company of another woman. Both times, too, he failed to reach her before either she was lost in the crowd or had gone into a house while she was temporarily out of sight.

What Styles Women Will Wear in Hats

Are matters of vital import nowadays—our showings definitely settle all doubt as to what will be prettiest and best liked.

Shapes—From the great variety of styles, it would seem that fashion has given "carte blanche" in selection; small or medium shapes seem to prevail, and an important feature of many is their marked irregularity, which makes them unusually becoming. Watteau shapes, with high left side bandeaux, tilted aslant to show the hair; Marquis tricornes, and tall, close fitting toques and bonnets; Breton and shepherdess sailors—all are good.

Materials—lace and lace-like fabrics, such as net, tulle and chiffons are much used; jet is extremely popular for brims, crowns and trimmings.

Braids—Milan, hemp, picot, tagal, Milan and satiny Belgian straw and leghorns are most in evidence up to date. Many hats are made entirely of moire, ottoman or faille ribbon.

Trimmings—bandeau effects are newest, since they offer a splendid trimming opportunity with flowers, tulle, ribbon and lace. The trimmings of many styles are effected by graceful ribbon bows, and clusters or garlands of small flowers. Flower-garnitures, by the way, are shown marked preference. And the more dressy hats show gourd, paradise, numidi and ostrich for trimmings.

ED WALSH MAKES HIS DEBUT AS OUTFIELDER.

Big Spittballer, With Double and Two Singles, Figures Prominently in White Sox Victory—Goofs Are All Rough With the Bat—Rogge, Quaders and Prough Hold Tigers to Two Hits.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

"GOOF!" Had any one slipped up behind Hogan last night and heeded this word in his ear, the chances are that Hap would have died of heart failure.

The Goofs are a species of ball player to be avoided by regular ball teams. Old Bill Sullivan yesterday at Washington Park yesterday disguised as the White Sox second, or March Terrors. They knocked the yarn out of the ball, battered down our strong fences, fielded in August form, trotted out three strong, young pitchers, who held the Tigers to two hits and beat up the Venice forces generally.

Score: Chicago, 4; Venice, 1.

GUNBOAT SMITH AND SAM LANGFORD ARE MATCHED.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

BOSTON March 5.—Joe Woodman, manager for Sam Langford, has persuaded Jim Buckley, manager of Gunboat Smith, to consent to a meeting between Smith and Langford in London, June 20.

Charles Cochran, a wealthy American now in London, is to finance the event. The bout will be held in the Olympia, one of the largest arenas in Great Britain, with seating capacity of about 20,000. Some time ago Woodman suggested such a bout to Mr. Cochran in this city and the latter at once fell in with the idea, saying that he would be willing to look after the match if Smith's consent to it could be obtained.

CLASSY TENNIS AT HUNTINGTON.

MOORMICK AND BARBER WIN FEATURE MATCH.

Free and Hart Make Valiant Effort, but Youngsters Get Away With the Match—Miss Sutton Wins With Ease—Looks Like a Hot Schedule for Today.

BY WILLIAM M. HENRY.

Tennis ranking above the ordinary opening day efforts was dashed up for those who journeyed out to the Hotel Huntington for the first day's play in the invitation tournament.

A good many of the best tennis players in the south were seen in action and showed just enough class to promise greater things today and tomorrow.

The real sensation of the day was the doubles match between McCormick and Barber, the Los Angeles High School stars, and Free and Hart, the former from California, and the latter once Coast champion.

The first set was captured after one of the hardest three-set matches seen in a long while. The teams were evenly matched and the play looked more like a final match than a first-round encounter.

McCormick and Barber excelled in steady driving play and worked well together, while Free and Hart, with less team work, occasionally came through with flashes of brilliance that elicited quite a ripple of applause from the gallery, which is going some for an opening day.

The first set was captured after quite a struggle by the High School pair with a 7-5 score. The second set was equally hard fought, and resulted in a win for Free and Hart, 6-4.

These two opening sets were featured by a little competition between McCormick and Hart, to see which could lose the most balls in the surrounding orange groves, the former winning both, according to numbers and distance.

The third set was an awful thing. Everybody won their serve until the score stood six all. McCormick won his service, as usual, and then the High School team pulled the match out of the fire by breaking into Free's service for the game, Barber ending things with a drive too speedy for Hart to handle.

There were several long rallies during the contest. Hart coming in for a good deal of applause for his remarkable gets and pile-driving smashes, though he fell down on the earlier strokes. Barber and McCormick displayed some very nice placement shots.

GRIFFIN SHINES. Peck Griffin eliminated three young men by earning high into a default and the other two by an exhibition of too much class, and called it a day's work. Glenn Morris and Grubb Glover were the victims of his unerring shots. He stands a fine chance of carting home some of the silverware put up by the management.

Miss Raymond sprang quite a surprise when she eliminated Miss Joan McColl from the running, 6-2, 6-2. She played a very steady game and displayed some fine strokes. Miss Florence Butler galloped through the day's matches without getting warmed up.

CORONADO NOW STATE CHAMPS.

SAN DIEGO, March 5.—The California challenge polo trophy and the State championship was won today by the Coronado "A" team in its defeat of the Ninth Cavalry. Coronado did not find the winning easy, for the cavalry officers offered a stubborn resistance and a very creditable hitting. The score was 14 to 7.

But in the last half, Hugh Drury and Capt. Isaacs began to settle down to scoring. Drury apparently found much amusement in dribbling the ball through the opposition and then raving away for goals.

Capt. Isaacs's large number came rather from passes up than from follows of his own.

For the cavalry, Lieut. E. Engel, the captain of the team, played the stellar game, and although busy with Lieut. Burr in the defense, the greater part of the time, succeeded in running through four goals.

Clenda, Holderness and Winfree, the forwards, played a good passing game and worked through the other four goals for the team. Holderness having three of them. Penalties reduced the goals by one.

The lineup and score: Coronado "A"—Capt. J. V. Isaacs, No. 1, six; Hugh Drury, No. 2, eight; C. P. Beadleston, No. 3, two; Lord Innes-Ker, back, 6. Total goals 16.

Ninth Cavalry—Lieut. A. W. Holderness, No. 1, three; Lieut. S. W. Winfree, No. 2, one; Lieut. Emil Engel, No. 3, four; Lieut. Edgar Burr, back, 6. Total goals 8. Foul, Burr, safeties.

Winfree, Burr, Not score, 7. Referee, Capt. G. Cookson.

The games for the Pacific Coast Junior championship which began yesterday will be continued Saturday and Sunday.

MANY COLLEGES IN RELAY CARNIVAL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

PHILADELPHIA, March 5.—Nearly 200 institutions are already entered for the relay races of the University of Pennsylvania, on April 28, according to athletic authorities of the university. The number includes nearly all the big colleges east and west, also Oxford University of England.

The captain of the English team has not yet decided whether to send a two or a four-mile relay team.

The four-mile relay race for the international championship, if Oxford enters that contest, is expected to be the feature event of the meet. Pennsylvania and Chicago are entered in this race, and it is expected many fast miles will be in the event.

Up and Down Broadway. BIG GEEZERS AT GINK FEED.

But Story Will Have to Be Held Over.

Censorship Board at Odds Over Picture.

Helen Keller Arrives for Lecture Tonight.

BY GARDNER BRADFORD.
I give fair warning of a brief column for the simple reason that yesterday I went to the big dogs of the Ginks and when one does that, work, for the time being becomes a task and not a pleasure.

Tomorrow, maybe, when the Ginks get out of my system, I will tell you about the doings, for some of the best-known live wires in Los Angeles were there, and we sure did make some noise on the way out to Major's.

For the time being I will content myself with remarking that I sat by the side of the well-known Bud Jones. Right across the table was Eddie Pullen, who won the Vanderbilt, and at his right was the Mayor of Detroit. At the end of the table was Barney Oldfield, with the inevitable cigar. So, you see, it was some party. Glenn Martin was there with Deascher.

Speaking of parties, it looks as if Quinn was getting into the wrong end of the stick. The chap that has the white-slave pictures, and, I understand, the board of censors, or at least part of them, is trying to have the films condemned.

If report is true, it is the men who want to stop the films and the women who want to let them stay, so maybe Quinn will inaugurate tea parties. You never can tell.

I believe this morning they are going to try out the big tank at the Hippodrome, as Dr. Carver's diving horses are now in town, and also the tank is ready. It is the biggest tank on any stage in America except the New York Hippodrome, and everyone is wondering what sort of a splash it will make when one of the horses makes a forty-foot dive into it.

You can bet I will be on hand to see Helen Keller tonight. I used to know her pretty well in the East, and she is one of the most fascinating people in the world to watch. Most of us control our expressions and feelings, while her face is an absolute mirror of every emotion which she receives. If Helen Keller could see, and talk, she would make the most wonderful actress who ever lived.

As it is, even though her voice is absolutely without modulation—remember, she has never heard the sound of it, and can only guess at the effects from the vibrations in her throat, she is a convincing actress, which holds thousands spellbound, even when, as is frequently the case, she cannot be heard.

She got in town yesterday, by the way, and was obviously tickled to death to be in Los Angeles. Right away she wanted to go down to the beach "so she could splash in the Pacific."

Cheer up, the Majestic will not be at the mercy of the movies for long. It got a letter yesterday from a man telling me he was on his way in "The Honeycomb Express."

Eddie Carpenter, who wrote "The Tongues of Men" for Henrietta Crossman, is an ordinary newspaper man, and still works at it. He has written several successes, but thinks it is a lucky stunt to stick onto a malarkey, even though, in the face of his royalties, it is only tin money.

Winifred Bryson, who recently dropped out of "The Honeycomb Express" and was up in Mark Ellitt's office when I dropped in and told me she had a signed contract with Morosco for a season in stock. She expects to appear in the show which follows "Rita's Romance."

FAMOUS TROTTER FANTASY IS DEAD.

BY A. P. DAY WEEK 1.
LEXINGTON (Ky.), March 5.—Fantasy by Chimes, 3-year-old, famous trotting mare and the holder of many world records, during her racing career, died today at the farm of her owner, J. B. McGowan, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

She was the first three-year-old to beat 2:10 and when four years old made a record of 2:04. Her three-year-old record stood for fourteen years until displaced here in 1907 by General Watts. Her four-year-old record stood for sixteen years until lowered by Joan in 1910.

SAN FERNANDO TO STAGE TRACK MEET

About the biggest thing in the way of track meets in the high school ranks for this season, will be held at San Fernando, Saturday afternoon. This is the fourth annual invitational track and field meet held by the San Fernando High School. Every year this meet has been growing until it is now one of the biggest high school meets of the year outside of the Southern California meet.

Some one hundred and twenty-eight men from sixteen high schools have already sent in their names and this list includes some of the best men in the south. Anaheim, Antelope Valley, Burbank, Covina, Downey, Elmonte, Glendale, Harvard Military, Hemet, Monrovia, Orange, Oxnard, San Fernando, Santa Paula, South Pasadena, and Ventura high schools have entered teams or men in practically all the events.

The meet will start at 1 p.m., being preceded by a cafeteria dinner in the Industrial Arts Building.

The German army officers are going in for athletics just as they are in for the Olympic Games. In 1916 in Berlin is responsible for the introduction of the great sport in the fighting forces of Emperor William. Prince Friedrich Karl von Prussen, a nephew of the Kaiser, is one of the best long-distance runners in Germany. Alvin Kraenzlein, chief coach of the German athletes, has taken the young men in hand and expects to have him compete in the big games.

Henrietta Crossman,
In "The Tongues of Men," which comes to the Mason next week.

Proven by Experience.

LOVE SCENE MAKES OR MARS PLAY, SAYS STAR.

THERE is no single feature of a play which so makes or mars for success as a pretty love scene," says Henrietta Crossman, who appears March 5 at the Mason Opera-house in "The Tongues of Men," by Edward Childs Carpenter. "It is as important to the drama proper as a good tune which anybody can whistle is to a musical comedy. A play without a love scene or without some situation in which the attraction of woman for man is shown would be an anomaly and would not succeed with any audience.

Every actor, and probably every experienced theatergoer, realizes the difference between ancient and modern love making. The former was magnificent, but it now seems rather artificial. In the drama of today, refinement, delicacy and spirituality blend the elemental feeling of love in a natural fashion.

The stage love of today acts according to the dictates of his own personality, and if that individuality reaches a certain sympathy or suggestion with the actress with whom he acts the strongest scenes, imagination comes into play, and the result is largely creative.

Sanguine. SAGE HENS HOPE TO BEAT BEARS.

PRESENT STRONGEST LINE-UP THIS AFTERNOON.

Youngman Moved Back to Third and Elliott Will Do the Catching. Becker Will Pitch—Bergstrom Expected to Shine in Short Field. Complete Line-up.

(BY DIRECT WIRE-EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

CLAREMONT, March 5.—Capt. Becker's Sage Hens will act as hosts to the Berkeley Bears on Alumni Field tomorrow afternoon in the first baseball game ever played between the two institutions. Track meets with California have been a regular occurrence for several seasons past and in the dim distance, the Huns fought with the men of the blue and gold on the gridiron, but this is the first time on record that the baseball varieties have crossed bats.

Despite the poor showing made against Pomona High School Tuesday Coach Kauffman expects to let the northern team know they have been in a real game, to say the least. The Huns figure to have a strong team this year and see no reason why they should not sharpen their swords on the big bears.

THE LINE-UP.

The line-up for tomorrow's game has been announced. Coach Kauffman will start Capt. Becker in the box and if the little southpaw's snipper is right, he will still be there in the ninth inning. If not, Daniels will be called in from right field to relieve him. This Daniels person is going great guns this season, hitting the ball for extra bases, and pitching with more control than he has had since Hens have ever had. Bergstrom is going to be the fielding sensation of the south in collegiate ranks this spring. He is better even than Holbrook of U.C. Law, who last year held down the short field berth for Pomeroy.

NEW SHORTSTOP.

Yavner on first, Edwards on second, Youngman on third and Bergstrom at short, present one of the most evenly balanced line-ups the Sage Hens have ever had. Bergstrom is going to be the fielding sensation of the south in collegiate ranks this spring. He is better even than Holbrook of U.C. Law, who last year held down the short field berth for Pomeroy.

Bray's dash and speed on the paths has won him a place at center field. Reynolds, the hard-hitting left-fielder, has been having trouble with his eyes lately, and the chances are against his getting into the game with the Bears.

thing that should be taken to heart. When they represent certain characters and certain phases in lives shown behind the footlights, they are themselves creating and forming pictures that the slightest hint of roughness will render inharmonious. The idea of passionate love can as easily be conveyed to an audience by the expression of the eyes and the lines about the mouth as it can by any amount of misplaced energy.

Shakespeare says that all the world loves a lover, and a little book was once published called "How Men Propose," which ran through many editions. Everyone enjoys love making. An audience takes delight in the playwright's conception of the fact, and the player's interpretation. An invariable interest is taken in the tender passion.

Each nation has evolved its own modes of thought as regards love on the stage as the reflection of it in real life. The French, on the other hand, are refined, witty and brilliant, but they take away from love some of its sacred and spiritual elements. Many French love scenes are like taking partners for the lancers.

In many instances the foreign dramatists lose the romance and chivalry which are the chief delights of the heart. Our home writers for the stage foster our native love for the tenderness and sweetness of life.

Goofs Beat Tigers.

was up to his old tricks by stealing second. Emboldened by his success, he was caught off that base by Rogers' quick throw, and run down on the line. Thus vanished the Tigers' first chance to score. Leard fanned and Horton being retired on Sheehan's brilliant assist back of second.

Wolfgang, a bow-legged gentleman from Denver, with a masculine complexion, opened the second by Glenn Martindale out to Skipper Bayless. Mayer, who established a world's record by going through the season of 1912 with the White Sox without making the semblance of a hit, singled to left, thereby proving that he had not lost his way. Rogers forced him at second, thanks to lightning execution by Messrs. Leard and Hosp.

The "big mouse" here horned in with his second hit, a double down the left-field line. Rogers chased around to third, only to perish when Sheehan succumbed to strikes.

Decanniere sprang at this time was wound up to a no-hit pitch, and the next three innings were noticeable by the build-mannered actions of the Goofs.

The Tigers were toothless in the second. By the third, Hogan considered the situation sufficiently serious to demand his personal attention. He waddled out near third base and addressed a few remarks to Mr. Rogers, one of them being to the effect that the Goofs party was about due to soar.

Rogers responded to this kind treatment by passing Litoch. Elliott, idol of the field bleachers, popped to Mayer. Decanniere walked. Carlisle hit cleanly to center, moving each man up a peg. Leard lifted a fly to Wolfgang and Litoch sprinted in just ahead of the Colorado citizen's throw. Borton knocked the ball a mile high in left. There was a period of intense while Walsh circled around it uncertainly. "Babe" was plainly chagrined when the ball settled in Walsh's hands instead of hitting him on top of the head. That is as far as it is possible to trail with the Tigers.

KLEPPER ON JOB.
Klepper was trotted out in the sixth. Schreber seemed to like Ed and hit him right for a single. Blackburn sacrificed, and Schreber scored a another run by hitting Ed. Barbour lined the ball toward right. McDonnell deflected it over to Leard with his glove, and retreated to the base in time to take Bill's throw and retire Barbour. Wolfgang fanned.

Walsh scratched out an infield hit in the seventh, but there was nothing to do with it. Klepper led off with a single, but Barbour led off with a single, but was picked off at first by the crafty Agnew. Wolfgang singled and Leard scored. Mayer came home with a triple to left. Klepper here got out the thumb-screws and fanned Prough and Walsh for an impressive

RARE INDICED. REAL BEAUTY IN GRAND OPERA.

CAROLINA WHITE WON RECOGNITION WITH SPEED.

Born in Boston, She Made Hit at Home Before Gaining Success Abroad—Has Achieved Fame in Many Difficult Roles—Will Be Here Next Week.

Carolina White, the soprano, who is one of the handsomest young singers of the Chicago Grand Opera Company, was born in Boston and for her own satisfaction more than anything else, began studying vocally when but a girl. In a local way she distinguished herself repeatedly, but an Italian professor visiting Boston heard her and urged her to go abroad and study for opera.

In less than a week she set sail for Italy, went to Naples and for six months studied with Maestro Sebastiani, made her debut in Naples in "Aida" in 1903, scored immediate success, afterwards sang in "Cavaleria Rusticana" and "Mefistofele," and scoring a hit, returned to America for rest and further studies. Later went abroad and began her Italian season in Genoa, was called to Venice and sang the leading soprano parts in "Iris," "Mann," and "Herodias."

Soon after Miss White was engaged for the Chicago Grand Opera Company. When she made her debut with that company, the critics predicted that a soprano who would become one of the most famous American singers had been discovered. This prediction was fulfilled when Miss White created the role of the girl in Puccini's new opera, "The Girl of the Golden West."

Her triumph was remarkable, and both Philadelphia and New York operagoers awaited with interest the appearance of the beautiful young soprano by creating the role of Ma-hella, which part she will sing next Wednesday afternoon in Wolf-Ferrari's "The Jewels of the Madonna," which was given its first production in this country by the Chicago company. Probably her greatest triumph was achieved in this part. Last season she sang the role of a quartering opera, "Manon Lescaut" in Puccini's opera of that name, and this season created the role of Flaura in "Cingari," under Leoncavallo's direction.

The Schuykill Navy made up of the rowing club along Boathouse Row, Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, proposes holding the annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen over the middle and quartering course on the Schuykill River on Friday and Saturday, July 24 and 25. The award will be made next month.

Champ Clark Says It Was Bill Jones' Fault!

"The Bill Jones" were the little fellows who sat tight holding on to their cash that brought about the lull in business that is fast coming to an end. It was the reluctance of the little corporations to separate themselves from their money that really caused the disquieting talk, all of which causes Speaker of the House of Representatives Clark to write a very interesting editorial on the result of the new Tariff and Currency laws.

Did You Ever Cry for the Moon?

That's what the uncouth multi-millionaire Blithers does in the second installment of George Barr McCutcheon's newest best seller, "THE PRINCE OF GRAUSTARK". It's a cry for a social "moon" in the shape of a prince whom he wants for a son-in-law. The installment fairly sparkles with brightness and provides wholesome and endless amusement throughout.

The End of the Contest

By Robert Barr.

Illustrations by J. N. Marchand.

So many of our readers have made known their keen enjoyment of these Lew Stranleigh stories that we feel the last of them, which is published in this number, will be finished with regret. "The End of the Contest" is a fitting climax to these unique adventures. It hinges on a Wild West auction sale punctuated with pistol excitement, and the other happenings make it the best of them all.

Confessions of a Washington Lobbyist

Playing Straight in a Crooked Game.

Reading like fiction, these further "Confessions of a Lobbyist" will be read word for word. It grips from the outset and gets you behind the scenes of the legislative game in Washington.

Spring Night

Poem by Bliss Carman.

There are a few real poets in America and probably the greatest of them is Bliss Carman. This idyllic poem brings a breath of the warmth and freshness and eternal magic of Spring.

The Cover Design is, without exaggeration, a genuine work of art. Penhys Stanlaw needs no introduction but never before has he painted so piquant and appealing a face as is reproduced on the cover of The National Sunday

Wife in Brilliant Array Seen by Thousands of Women in Downtown Promenade and Indoor Inspection—Bullock's Bluebird Blue a Broadway Feature.
Fifth Street Store Aglow.

BY OLIVE GRAY.

BRILLIANT as was the United States flag at the hour of understanding yesterday night, it was equally appreciated by those who saw the spectacle yesterday.
It had been noted about that there was to be a style parade in many of the downtown stores early in the morning. "That's right," many who had been at the windows on the previous evening came to see again, and those who had not seen the store made it a point to see the entire day downtown.

Handsome painted screens and panels representing spring time incarinated in lovely feminine figures, served as a background for tall jardinieres of white enameled lattice containing Shasta daisies.
Against this tasteful setting figures clad in the latest garments for the season's wear, street suits, wraps, millinery, were shown and especially featured were the lighter fabrics for spring and summer use. The simple beauty of the decorations served to emphasize that here, as in most of the Broadway stores, the practical and wearable had been used to show that use was not incompatible with beauty;
but exactly the reverse.

NEWCOMER'S CORSET SHOP.
The windows of Newcomb's Corset
Shop were resplendent with new models in corsets and underwear which is kindred to these garments.

One window presented, in shades of blue and green, the newest set of figures made to represent the natural form, draped in handsome fabrics and exhibiting the no-waist tango corset, in Grecian lines as well as corsets of elastic made to restrain the form but to in no wise confine it. In another window were corset forms in gold and pink—a fine display showing the possibilities of coloring and of shape as well in this important feature of modern women's dress.

In addition was exhibited a full range of brassieres from those of plain and durable fabrics such as cotton and linen plainly made, to the most ephemeral of creations in linen and silk lacrimated and hand-embroidered. Camisoles, garters, stockings and the many intimate articles which form so large a part of the wardrobe of the modern woman were shown here in profusion.

POSTER GIRLS IN OIL.
Much comment was caused by the reproduction of the fashion poster girl done in oils, which was exhibited in the window of Little's Art Shop.
This, together with the "Insect Fairytale" shown in this window, attracted a continuous crowd. Dolls were winged, and given a butterfly effect, and suspended in mid-air were constantly fluttering, while elsewhere bees, birds and other insects, with doll faces and doll bodies, gave one the feeling of having entered a "Alice's Wonderland."

AN ITALIAN GARDEN.
An Italian garden was presented realistically in the windows of the art shop of Merick Reynolds, on Lower Broadway.
A marble fountain of rare workmanship formed a center piece, and in its depths living goldfish swam happily. Marble seats and marble vases, urns and articles of alabaster from foreign countries were artistically assembled here, and interspraved were real blossoms of the peach tree. A touch of reality was also added by the exquisite white doves which perched or fluttered about the fountain, as doves are wont to do in fair Italy.

MORE PROMENADES.
An innovation at Robinson's was the promenade of living models, and that the opportunity to view the handsome garments for which this house is famed was appreciated, was attested by the continuous crowds in attendance from the opening hours until the completion of each exhibition.

Among the handsome creations shown here were:
A theater gown of jonquil yellow taffeta in the "pussy willow" weave,
with a border effect in gold bullion and tulle, the tulle edged with this rich bordering. A floating sash of tulle in the petunia, shade was a pretty feature of this rich imported gown. The transparent bodice was upheld across the shoulders by chains of gold baroque pearls.
A Palm Beach promenade costume of white imported crepe was characterized by an embroidered tunic in tuturist floral effect, and with this was worn a pleated wrap built upon extremely slender lines.

Robinson's will conduct a promenade of living models each morning at 10 o'clock and each afternoon at 2, during Friday, Saturday, and on Monday, next.

AT BLACKSTONE'S.
The promenade of living models at Blackstone's, always, popular, was even more attractive than usual, perhaps because of the understanding that the poster girl would wear a number of garments.
One adorable creation displayed by this lovely girl was a Lucile creation of white lace and turquoise taffeta,
the latter being used in a most original way to form hip tunics, which were in no wise a part of the remainder of the costume. A quaint sort of shepherdess effect was lent by these odd little tunics.

Another lovely little gown was also developed in blue taffeta, but of a very delicate shade, such as the first peeping crocus shows upon its inner petals. The novel feature here consisted in the double puffing of the taffeta, passing entirely around the hips, and in no place draped, but which remained frankly a double row of puffs. The skirt of each of these extremely smart creations was of lace floating set in triple rows
from the foot to above the knee.
There will be a promenade at Blackstone's at 10 a.m. and at 2 o'clock, p.m. on Friday and on Saturday.

HELD FOR TRIAL.
Nick Grommow, a young Russian charged with burglarizing the substation of the Los Angeles postoffice at Vermont and Main streets, of $143.90 worth of postage stamps, had his preliminary examination before United States Commissioner Williams
yesterday. The witnesses against him were Postmaster Jelski, in charge of the mutilated office, and a second-hand dealer in clothing on South Los Angeles street, to whom Grommow sold $72 worth of the stamps for $12. The prisoner was held in $2500 bond for his appearance.

Postal Card Threat Menaces City
Prosecutor McKeeby, Who Scorns
Anonymous Writer.

An anonymous postal card dated March 4, was received by City Prosecutor McKeeby yesterday, evidently sent by some sympathizers with the pugilist, Clabby, who is facing a trial
on the charge of beating Patrolman Laurance when the latter attempted to quell a disturbance in which Clabby was one of the central figures.

The postal card bore the following menacing message, in original spelling: "You will get more than you bargain for for your permissiveness
in the persecution of the Clabby case.
Better get wise to diplomacy. A citizen."

Prosecutor McKeeby said yesterday that he is not at all alarmed by the threats, but on the contrary the more threats he receives the harder he will prosecute in this or any other case.

yesterday by the members of his staff.
The pup was accoutred in an elabo-tached by a fancy-plaited leather leash

to the safe in the prosecutor's office.
On the safe rested a card bearing the inscription, "The City Prosecutor's morals." Another card attached to

LOS ANGELES TO ALASKA
BARELY FOURTEEN MILES.

HOW James H. Billings of the California Shoe Company at Venice is alleged to have played the gay Lothario and how the double life was discovered by his daughter, Mrs. Gertrude H. Englebaugh of this city, was dramatically told by her in Judge Fin-layson's court yesterday.

Mrs. Englebaugh is representing her mother, Mrs. Mamie A. Billings of Chicago, who was still Billings's wife when he married Mrs. Little Helman at Richmond, this State, about seven years ago. Billings, however, left his $10,000 estate to Mrs. Helman, and because of this the real Mrs. Billings is opposing the probate of the will on the ground of undue influence.
The story goes that Billings, a traveling man, left home about nine years ago to make a strike. During the years that intervened Mrs. Billings received letters from him dated at Alaskan points. In some he bemoaned his fate; in others he spoke about his claims and the big strikes he was going to make.

He asked her not to think he had abandoned her, and in one letter he wrote, "I guess you have forgotten me for good." But the tenor of the letters was that of a husband to a wife whom he expected to rejoin. As a matter of fact, it appears, the letters were written in Los Angeles, where Billings was doing well in business and accounted for Mrs. Billings not suspecting the terrible trouble that eventually fell upon her.

Mrs. Englebaugh finally learned, she says, that her father was living at Venice. One day she called him on the telephone and a woman's voice answered. She said it was Mrs. Billings. A hurried trip to Venice followed and Mrs. Englebaugh confronted the woman who unknowingly, it seems, had come between her mother and her father.

"I told Mrs. Helman I did not know any other Mrs. Billings, but my mother, Mrs. Helman replied she did not know Billings had a daughter.
"Are you his daughter?" she asked.
I told her I was and that my mother is living and is his wife. My father said to me, "How you have grown!"

He asked me to sit down a moment.
But Mrs. Helman never let us have a word together in private."

Mrs. Billings was told in letters how she had been deceived and came to Los Angeles, where she filed suit for separate maintenance. This suit was withdrawn when Billings had a contract drawn up in which his wife was to receive $1800, provided she brought suit for divorce and obtained a decree.

"My mother was opposed to a divorce," said Mrs. Englebaugh, "and father said if she did not sign the contract, Mrs. Helman would send him to the penitentiary."
She did sign the contract, however, but all she received was $600. Suffering caused by Billings's alleged duplicity has caused Mrs. Billings to practically lose her eyesight.

Mrs. Helman denies she influenced Billings in executing his will so that she got all of the stock in the shoe factory. The case will be concluded today.

SAVES MOTHER FROM DOG.

Deputy sheriff at San Rafael commandeered Auto to Shoot Terrier Which Went Mad Suddenly.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.) SAN RAFAEL (Cal.) March 5.—Like a thoughtful son, Jack Donahue, a deputy sheriff, called his mother on the telephone today to tell her that he could not be home to dinner.

"That's all right, Jack," he heard her say, and then suddenly the tone of her voice changed.

"Hurry! Hurry!" she cried. "Hurry home." The connection was interrupted and Donahue could learn no more. He jumped from the Courthouse, commandeered the first automobile he saw and drove fifty miles an hour through the streets of San Rafael to his house.

There he found his mother locked in her bedroom, whither she has been chased by her pet fox terrier, which went mad while she was talking on the telephone. Donahue shot the dog. His mother, who is 72 years old, was not bitten.

INJUNCTION REFUSED. Decides Against Application of the Settlers Company to Restrain the California-Idaho Company.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.) PITTSBURGH, March 5.—Judge John D. Shafer, in Common Pleas Court here today, refused to grant a preliminary injunction to restrain the California-Idaho Company, a Delaware corporation, from releasing the American Water Works and Guarantee Company from its agreement to liquidate a mortgage of $6,000,000 that the Farmers' Loan and Trust Company of New York holds against the California-Idaho Company. The Settlers' Reclaiming and Operating Company was the plaintiff.

The California-Idaho Company, whose president here and before Peckham was W. S. Kahn, and a number of the other general officers live in Pittsburgh, is composed of several irrigating companies in California and Idaho.

LABORER GETS FORTUNE. Berkeley Man Inherits $250,000 by the Death of His Mother in Massachusetts.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.) BERKELEY, March 5.—Winthrop C. Vinton, a laborer, received today news that he had inherited $250,000 through the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary T. Vinton, at Somerville, Mass. He announced his intention of leaving at once for the East.

A graduate of an eastern university, and a member of the Phi Delta Omicron Fraternity, Vinton came West before the Spanish-American War. When hostilities broke out he enlisted with the Second California Volunteer Regiment and served throughout the campaign in the Philippines. He engaged in business in San Francisco before the war, but failed and went to work as a laborer.

Controversy. ASKS DAMAGES OF FIRE CHIEF. Apparatus Salesman Seeks Redress in Court.

Declares His Reputation Was Injured by Alleged Telegram Reflecting on His Methods and Holds Head of San Francisco Department Responsible.

(BY DONALD WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, March 5.—Thomas R. Murphy, chief of the fire department, was made the defendant today in a $25,000 damage suit filed by E. P. Peckham, formerly a captain in the National Guard. The damages are asked for an alleged report made by Chief Murphy to Chief McAlevy of Tacoma, relating to Peckham's handling of some fire apparatus undergoing test operations here and before Peckham sought to engage in making similar tests in the northern city.

Chief Murphy's report to Chief McAlevy was made on January 24 last, in the form of a telegram, and is thus quoted in the complaint: "SAN FRANCISCO, January 24, 1914—George McAlevy, Chief Tacoma Fire Department.

"Regarding Peckham: Gave him four chances to test out piece of Webb apparatus and each time he fell down. The fourth trial he had joggled the apparatus so that it would read four and one-half miles faster than the machine was really going. We caught him at this game. He then tried to bribe a member of this department by having the gears changed on a piece of apparatus now in service of America in France type. We also caught him at this. Matter was investigated by commissioners and is now in their hands. Reports have come to me from time to time, which are anything but in his favor from other lines of business he followed before handling apparatus. His knowledge of fire apparatus is extremely limited."

This telegram is characterized by the plaintiff as malicious, false and defamatory. "All of the words, facts and matters set forth in said telegram," continues the plaintiff, "were false and untrue and known by the defendant to be false and untrue at the time of the making of the same, and said statements, words and accusations were published maliciously by the defendant for the sole purpose of injuring the plaintiff in the course of his business as a fire apparatus salesman."

The plaintiff demands $25,000 for the alleged damage to his reputation and $10,000 as exemplary and punitive damages.

FRENO BRULERS. (LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) FRENO, March 5.—According to present plans, Brig.-Gen. Arthur Murray, commander of the department of California, will make a trip to this city some time this week to inspect the proposed site in Aubrey Valley. Murray will likely be accompanied by the annual army maneuvers.

PHONE SAVING TO LOS ANGELES.

New Long-Distance Rates Go Into Effect at Once.

Two-Party Lines Conform to Special Zone Service.

Half-Million Dollars Yearly Is Total Reduction.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—New long distance telephone rates within the forty-four-mile zone and new two-party rates for local calls were established today by the State Railroad Commission in a supplementary order modifying the previous reduction by which subscribers and users gained a sum estimated by the commission's experts at $500,000 annually.

The effect of the new schedule is to increase the company's receipts $25,000 from long-distance tolls and to decrease it $14,000 on two-party calls, making a net reduction of $11,000 and a total reduction for the previous and the new schedule of $194,000.

Under the amended order the rates now are: "For distance up to and including fourteen miles, 10 cents for the first two minutes and 5 cents for every minute or fraction thereof additional."

"Between fourteen and twenty-nine miles, 15 cents for the first two minutes and 5 cents for every minute or fraction thereof additional."

"Between twenty-nine and forty-four miles, 20 cents for the first two minutes and 10 cents for every minute or fraction thereof additional."

The two-party rate is reduced to conform with the special zone rate. Los Angeles city and county and the cities clustered about San Francisco Bay are the districts chiefly affected.

ENGLISH EARL SEEKS BROTHER.

YOUNG ARISTOCRAT MISSING FOR FIVE YEARS.

Shipped as Stoker and Is Supposed to Have Taken Up Life on Western Ranch—Young Man Seriously Injured When Caught Under Automobile—Short News Stories.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.) BAKERSFIELD, March 5.—A. Donovan of Dublin, Ireland, solicitor for the Earl of Leitrim, is a recent visitor in this city. He has been in California for some weeks seeking a younger brother of the Earl's, who five years ago gave up an income of $200,000 a year to become a cowboy.

It was supposed that the young man, then about 22 years of age, shipped from Southampton as a stoker and from New York found his way West. He traveled under the name of Patrick Clements. Mr. Donovan is making inquiries of the various cattlemen in Kern county in the hope of getting news of the young man. The Earl of Leitrim, who is a member of the House of Lords, visited Leitrim three years ago trying to find some trace of his brother.

PINNED UNDER AUTO. Hal P. Bishop, aged 23, was injured, probably fatally, tonight when his auto turned over and pinned him beneath the windshield. Bishop was joy-riding out on the bluffs beyond East Bakersfield and at a bad place in the road the machine got out of his control, went over a bank fifty feet high and pinned him underneath with the windshield across his back. The woman with him was thrown clear and escaped without serious injury. Three men in an automobile came to the assistance of the injured man and conveyed him to the hospital, where it was found that his back was broken. An operation will be performed today, but if the man lives he will probably be paralyzed.

ENDS LIFE WITH SHOT. Without warning and seemingly with little or no provocation, Edwin J. Price of Alameda county, shot himself through the head yesterday evening in the apartments of an old friend and a young lady held in the highest esteem by all who know her. Miss Dittie lectured Price on his dissolute habits, urging him to reform and care for his little child, who lives in Alameda.

Price went into the bathroom and immediately Miss Dittie heard him fire the fatal shot. She summoned about but Price lived but a minute after assistance came. In his pocket was found a picture of himself and the little baby.

INJURED IN COLLISION. J. Sexton and B. Thornton, recent arrivals from Kansas City, were severely injured in a collision with a motorcycle yesterday. Henry Cawell and Frank Day were riding the motorcycle, which had a side car attached and the other men were about to board an electric car when the accident took place. All were hurt, Sexton most of all. He weighs about 200 pounds and was struck head-on. Both he and Thornton had their clothes badly torn. Day had the muscles of his right arm badly strained and Cawell was hurt about the chest.

ARRESTED IN SAN FRANCISCO. WANTED IN DENVER. (BY A. P. DAY WIRE.) SAN FRANCISCO, March 5.—William Bierkamp, Jr., was arrested by detectives here today in response to a telegram from Sheriff G. R. Duffield of Denver, who said Bierkamp was wanted there for operating a confidence game. Bierkamp gave his occupation as a banker when he was booked at the city prison.
